THEMES:

1.- Dynamics of the educational institution in today's context: 'Take care that the school always runs well and so that the community observes the Rule'. (SJBS Letter to Brother Robert, 1709. C 57,12).

This theme focuses on educational institutions ( schools of any level, boarding schools, training centers, community centers, community radio, cultural centers, higher education institutions, among others), seen as organizations with interaction between people, curricula, regulations, expectations, resources, traditions and rituals that capture their own seal and vitality. Within it, we can find various topics of interest, such as:

- The reaction of the educational institutions towards the new forms of poverty
- Teaching approach among the different programs, projects, courses, compulsory and non-compulsory subjects
- Evaluation of curricular and non-curricular learning
- Interpersonal relations and harmony in classrooms and other educational facilities
- Job training
- Teacher education
- Literacy
- Link between family and school: the relationship with the milenian parents
- Relation with the students from generation "Z"
- Relations between the school and the regional, local and socio-cultural environment
- Interculturality and internationalization

- Inclusion
- Response from the educational institution to the characteristics of the students.
- ITCs
- School management in support of the institution and the classrooms.
- Other related topics

2.- Lasallian identity and community: "You share in the ministry of the Guardian Angels by making known to children the truths of the Gospel, which you have been chosen by God to announce". (SJBS Med. 198.2)

This theme focuses on the educational institutions ( schools of any level, boarding schools, training centers, community centers, community radio, cultural centers, higher education institutions, among others), and the recognition and promotion of interpersonal relations, normativity and any action related to de Lasallian educational mission. These are some topics about practices and orientation:

- Formation programs for the collaborating partners of the Lasallian mission.
- Building and rebuilding the Lasallian educational mission in our own institution.
- Association
- Impulse to the Community approach through all of the members of an educational institution
- Evaluation of the identity and the community within the institutions
- Participation of the different groups from the educational community in institutional decision-making processes
